*Note: For “purpose of payment,” give “application fee” and under “Message to payee,” please write the applicant’s name.

*If the initially paid amount is insufficient, you are required to remit the balance plus a 2500-yen currency exchange handling fee. The university will not accept requests for special consideration if you are not able to submit your full application fee by the deadline.

(2) Payment in Japan

Applicants residing in Japan and representatives in Japan of Japanese-citizen applicants who are residing overseas at the time of application may pay the application fee from their nearest bank.

* Note: Persons making payment on behalf of the applicant should be sure to include information giving the name of the applicant.

◆ Reimbursement of Application Fee Payments

Application fees will not be returned.

However, if any of the following three conditions applies, the payment may be returned by following the procedure detailed below (*).

(1) The application fee was paid through a bank or other financial agent but an application form was not submitted.

(2) The application fee was paid and the application form submitted, but the application was not accepted.

(3) The application fee was paid and the application form submitted, but payment was mistakenly in excess of the amount required.

(* Procedure for reimbursement of fees paid

Contact the Meiji Gakuin Admissions Center no later than August 18, 2017. A Fee Return Request Form will be sent to you, which will indicate details of the procedure.

Contact the Meiji Gakuin University, The Admissions Center: mginfo@mguad.meijigakuin.ac.jp

() Method of reimbursement

The fee will be returned as an overseas wire transfer in Japanese yen. The handling charges will be subtracted from the amount. If the amount to be reimbursed is less than the handling charges, reimbursement will not be made. Thank you for your understanding.

2. How to Apply

Applications are accepted only by postal mail following the procedure outlined below. Applications that are incomplete, received by other methods, or received after the final application period date will not be accepted.

◆ When applying in Japan

Please submit application documents by simple-registered, express mail (kan'i-kakitome sokutatsu) through the post office. Make sure they have arrived by the deadline for applications. Applications received after the final application period date will not be accepted.

◆ When applying from outside Japan

Please submit application documents by EMS or registered airmail. Make sure they have arrived by the deadline for applications. Applications received after the final application period date will not be accepted.

On the same day you mail your application, please send email to the following address providing the following information:

- (1) Notice that you have sent an application
- (2) Your name
- (3) Method by which application documents were sent
- (4) Registered mail number

Address: mginfo@mguad.meijigakuin.ac.jp

3. Application Periods

- ◆ First period : October 24 – November 8 ,2016
- ◆ Second period : March 17 – April 3, 2017

Please note that receipt of applications will not be individually acknowledged.

4. Sending of examination registration materials

- ◆ First period: November 18, 2016.
- ◆ Second period: April 10, 2017.

An examination registration number will be sent on the specified date to the email address indicated by the candidate on the application form.

Candidates living outside Japan will also receive notification of the date and time for a Skype interview, the Skype ID for the Department of Global and Transcultural Studies, and emergency contact details.

Candidates living in Japan will also receive a paper examination registration slip, sent by post.

5. Date and place of examination

- ◆ For candidates living in Japan:

The examination will be held on Saturday, November 26 (first period), and on Saturday, April 15 (second period), at the Shirokane campus of Meiji Gakuin University. Gates will open at 9am and candidates should be at the gathering place by 9.20am. Candidates will be informed of the gathering place when they are sent their examination registration slip. Please enter the campus by the main gate.

- ◆ For candidates living outside Japan:

For first period candidates, the examination will be conducted via Skype, from November 27 (Sunday) to November 29 (Tuesday).

For second period candidates, the examination will be conducted via Skype, from April 16 (Sunday) to April 18 (Tuesday).

We will endeavor to choose a day and time matching requests sent by candidates on their application forms. The date and time will be included in the email informing candidates of their examination number.

6. Rules regarding the examination

- ◆ For candidates living in Japan:

Do not forget to bring your examination registration slip with you. Should you forget to bring it, or lose it, or if you do not receive it, please inform a member of staff before the examination commences. After confirming your identity, we will reissue the examination registration slip.

* Late arrival: You will not be able to enter the examination room after 10:30am. However, special arrangements may be made in the event of natural disasters, accidents, or delay to public transportation.

* During the examination, please display your examination registration slip on the desk in front of you. (Keep it on top of the desk at all times in the interview waiting room, and be sure to take it with you when you enter the interview room.) You may not leave the examination site until the examination has finished (anyone leaving the site will not be readmitted).

* Interviews will in principle be conducted in order of examination registration number, so some candidates may have to wait for some time in the waiting room.

* When the interview is over, candidates are free to go home.

◆ For candidates living outside Japan

* At the appointed time, the university will call the candidate on Skype. If it is not possible to contact the candidate, in principle the candidate will be deemed to have forfeited the examination.

* If you need to change the appointed date and time, please call the emergency contact number indicated in the email from the university.

7. Announcement of Admissions Acceptance
